THE WILLIAM CHILDRESS FAMILY

William Childress <sup>was</sup> is a descendant of one of the Childress immigrants who came to America in the early 1600's from Yorkshire, England and settled in and around Henrico County, Virginia. Members of the Childress Family of George County, Mississippi (formerly Jackson County) descend from William, traditionally the son of William, Sr. of Virginia and South Carolina.

William Childress was born in 1798, in South Carolina. He died in 1856, in Jackson County, Mississippi. He is believed to have accompanied a sister and a brother, Sarah Childress Ward and Bartholomew Childress, to Jackson County in 1814, from the Georgia Territory. His name first appeared on the poll tax roll in 1820, after he became 21 years of age. In 1828, he began paying taxes on land he purchased on Childress Creek near the Pascagoula River. The 313 acres he purchased from John Ward included most, if not all, of Section 12, Township 2S, Range 8. In 1830, he was head of a household. He was 32 years of age and his wife was between 15-20 years of age. They had no children. On the 1850 Census William Childress was listed as a widower with five children. All the children were in school except the youngest who was not of school age. William was a farmer and serving as County Treasurer. According to his grandson, Moses Ripley Childress, William was a tax collector. He said that his Grandfather went on horseback to collect taxes and would be gone from home sometimes for several days.

Mrs. Dunbar Rowland listed William Childress as a veteran of the War of 1812. No record of his service has been found.

Traditionally William Childress married Elizabeth Ward, but this marriage has not been proven. His wife died 21 December 1847, in childbirth. Their children were: Elizabeth born in 1830. She married John Wesley Ranager; Nancy Ann born in 1833. There has been no trace of Nancy Ann since 1850;

Thomas Thaddeus Childress

Thomas Thaddeus Childress, son of William Childress, was born in Jackson County, Mississippi, September 22, 1835. He died August 25, 1898, and is buried at Shady Grove Cemetery in George County.

He married Elizabeth "Betsy" Adams August 5, 1860. Her parents were Wyatt and Martha? Havard Adams. Her grandparents were John and Celia Havard.

Thaddeus Childress inherited land from his father. He and his wife sold part of the land to James Cowart, Jr. in June, 1861, described as Division 2 of lands belonging to William Childress in Section 12, Township 2 South of Range 8. What happened to the balance of William's land is unknown. Evidently, Thaddeus stayed at his father's home following his father's death in 1856, until his marriage to Elizabeth in 1860. He had his young sister Caroline until she went to Baldwin County in 1857. He was then alone until 1860. After he married, he acquired land in Central Community and built a new home for Elizabeth. No record of this land acquisition has been found, but the site of his home is presently owned by Leonard Rogers on Highway 26 West near Big Creek. The print of Thaddeus's old dug well can be seen in Leonard's front yard. The huge hickory nut trees which lined the drive to his home can still be seen from the highway. Most of the land was sold to the Rogers Family during the depression years.

In 1850, Thaddeus was a student in the local school. He later attended school at Barton's Academy in Mobile. The date or how long he was at the Academy is unknown. None of the early school records at Barton's Academy survived. According to his son, he did teach some after returning to Jackson County. Thaddeus's chief occupation was farming.

Knowledge of Thad's and Betsy's social, civic, and religious life is practically nil. Cyril E. Cain in Four Centuries on the Pascagoula listed Thomas Thaddeus serving as Justice of the Peace, Beat 1, from 1874 to 1877, Jackson County. In 1886, Shady Grove Baptist Church was organized and Elizabeth Childress was a charter member. Prior to the organization of this church, the family probably attended church at Cross Roads Methodist Church organized in 1826.

In addition to rearing six children of their own they had at various times in their home William Ranager, son of Thad's sister Elizabeth; their granddaughter Renie Childress, daughter of their son Cornelius who died before Renie was born; and Lula Jane Adams, a niece of Betsy.

Their children were: Cornelius Lorenza born 31 May 1861, married Emeline Pipkins 25 January 1883, the daughter of Lewis and Renie Cooley Pipkins. Cornelius died 18 July 1883. He did not see his only child, Renie, who was born 27 December 1883; Julia Ann born 20 December 1862 married William Wiley Howell. She died 25 July 1938; Margaret Jane born 14 February 1865, married Alexander Love. She died 5 September 1934; Rowena Sufronia born 18 October 1868, unmarried. She died 4 January 1936; Moses Ripley born 12 November 1872, married Mary Etta Tanner. He died 26 January 1963; and Harriet Caroline born 13 November 1876, married 1st A. D. Beavers, married 2nd Thomas B. Bennett. She died 17 February 1951.

Moses Ripley Childress

Moses Ripley Childress was born 12 November 1872, in Jackson County, Mississippi to Thomas Thaddeus and Elizabeth "Betsy" Adams Childress. He died 26 January 1963, and is buried at Shady Grove Cemetery. Moses attended school at Cross Roads. His father sent him to Barton's Academy in Mobile where he remained only a few days before returning home. He married Mary Etta Tanner Rouse, the widow of Felix Andrew Rouse and became the step-father of five small children. Mary Etta born 2 February 1867, was the daughter of Valentine and Martha Walker Tanner and the granddaughter of John W. and Mary Baker Tanner.

Soon after his marriage, Moses homesteaded land near Corinth Church in the Havard Settlement near his relatives. He was the gr-grandson of John and Celia Havard. How long Moses and Mary lived in the Havard Community is unknown, but they returned to the Andrew Rouse place near Central School and Shady Grove Church where they built a new home in which they lived for the rest of their lives. Moses acquired additional land adjoining Andrew's 13 acres.

Moses was a farmer. With his large family it was sometimes necessary for him to take public jobs. George County Court House records show that he contracted the clearing of the present Highway 98 from Lucedale to the Alabama line. In the winters he was a school bus driver in the days when the driver furnished the bus.

Moses never sought or held a public office, but he was politically active often serving at the local voting precinct. He served as trustee of Magnolia and Central Schools. He was trustee of Shady Grove Cemetery, a position he passed on to his son Lloyd when he became old. With Joseph Ranager and his son he placed numbered cement posts at the head of every unmarked grave in the cemetery. The names were listed by number in a cemetery book which was later lost. He once said that his gr-grandfather, John Havard, was the first person buried in Shady Grove Cemetery. It was originally the Havard Cemetery. He and his family were members of Shady Grove Church.

Moses was often affectionally called the "Kaiser" which in German means higher than the King. It has been said that he acquired the title because he had a temper and ruled at home with a stern hand. Yet, from all accounts, he was quick to come to the rescue of his children if a situation warranted it. He was a good father to both his step-children and his own. Old deeds and other records show him giving support in various ways to his step-children and his own. Each of them in turn gave him support in terms of attention and care in his last years of life. His grandchildren thought he was the greatest of all Grandfathers.

To this union were born six children: Lola Gertrude born 16 August 1897, married 1st Eugene Howell and 2nd Johnnie Moore of Mobile, Alabama; Lyman Randall born 11 September 1899, married Claudia Aline Dickerson; Lloyd Ratliff born 21 October 1901, married Jane Howell; Carlisle Lee born 15 February 1905, married Fronie Gertrude Dickerson; Lillie Elmer "Lillian" born 16 December 1907, married Perry Herdon Browning of Mobile, Alabama; and Gordon Valentine "Buddie" born 5 November 1910, married 1st Pauline Steiner of Mobile and 2nd Minnie Williams of Leakesville, Mississippi.

Lyman Randall Childress

The first son of Moses and Mary Childress was Lyman Randall born 11 September 1899. He died 16 February 1963, and is buried at Shady Grove Cemetery.

Lyman attended school at Magnolia, the community school. He completed the highest grade offered which was the 10th grade, after which he enrolled and graduated at Mobile Barber College. In 1921, when he married Claudia Aline Dickerson, daughter of William and Colie Eubanks Dickerson, he owned and operated a barber shop in Lucedale, Mississippi. Depression came in the early 1930's, and the barber shop was no longer a profitable business. When he closed the shop, his father gave him twenty acres of land in Central Community on which he built a bungalow. It was in this house that his four children were reared. This home was furnished mostly with antique second-handed furniture. There was an ornate organ from Claudia's parents and a mahogany love seat from a sister. Second-handed furniture purchased in Mobile included a large solid mahogany wardrobe put together with wooden pegs, an antique writing table which folded from the top, a mahogany center table, an oversized oak rocking chair, and bedroom furniture. From the barber shop came a tall mirror on a narrow cabinet used for barber supplies and a long wooden bench which was used on the front porch. Some of this furniture is treasured today and still in use. The first radio Lyman and Claudia owned was an Atwater-Kent which operated with batteries. A stack of batteries rested beneath the radio on a lower shelf of the table. Their first victrola still plays records.

With a home and land Lyman became a truck farmer hauling produce for himself and his neighbors to the Mobile Market. In addition to farming, he worked for his father-in-law who owned markets in Leakesville and Lucedale, Mississippi. Hard work and long hours soon took their toll. In the mid 1930's, Lyman became a victim of rheumatoid arthritis viciously crippling his body but not his spirit. When he could no longer walk and became confined to a wheel chair, his wife went to work in a sewing room and later in the lunch room at the local school. During the winter months teachers from the school lived in their home. Two who stayed were relatives. Another, Minnie Williams, later became a sister-in-law. These teachers supplemented the family income. Even in the darkest hours of the depression this couple remained proud and independent refusing charity when offered. Together they managed well and by the early 1940's they opened a country combined grocery, service station, and a self-help laundry. This enabled them to work together and earn a living for themselves and their children. When Highway 26 West was paved, the new highway took most of their building. A smaller store without the laundry was built across the road later.

Childress

During the 1930's and early 1940's, an education was an important as a way out of poverty and the road to success. Never did this couple allow one of their children to remain home to work. Each child graduated and was encouraged to go to college or a trade school. Lyman served as trustee of the school.

Lyman and Claudia were active members of Shady Grove Baptist Church from the beginning of their marriage. Church was an important part of their lives. Claudia is still an active member at age 83.

Many people have said of Lyman Childress, "He was an inspiration to me." He was a good listener, a self-educated, well-read person. People came and unburdened their troubles and problems upon him as he sat in the store each day. His response to people and their needs made them forget that he was the physically helpless one. He was a compassionate, understanding person.

His home was always open to others. He never lacked for company.

Lyman and Claudia Childress are parents of Mary Ellen born 22 February 1923; Ray Louis born 18 September 1926; Aline Elizabeth born 24 July 1930; and Lyman Franklin born 30 October 1932. Mary Ellen married Herman L. Rouse 8 June 1942. Ray married Janet Williamson 31 July 1949. Aline married Lewis Skidmore Waller III 5 October 1952. Frank married Marilyn Howell 30 January 1954.

Ray learned early in life to assume adult responsibilities. His father, unable to do himself, taught him carpentry, mechanics, farming, etc. from his wheel chair. After leaving high school, Ray welded for a local welding company for several months to supplement the family income.

On December 12, 1944, he was drafted into the army at age 18. He served in the Pacific and European Theaters during and after World War II. In the Asiatic-Pacific Theater (Philippines, Okinawa, Japan) he served with the 11th Airborne Division from June, 1945 to September, 1946, in Japan. He was a paratrooper. After he returned from the Pacific, he served in Europe as a member of a National Guard Unit. He was honorably discharged from service as a Sergeant on May 29, 1952.

During his second tour in service, Ray and Janet lived in Lawton, Oklahoma. After separation from the army, they lived in Pascagoula where Ray was employed at Ingall's Shipbuilding Corporation. In 1954, they purchased a home and 240 acres of land in Basin Community, George County. After settling in Basin, in addition to farming Ray worked several years as a "jack-of-all-trades" including welding, building, and house moving. Janet did secretarial work in the offices of George County Sheriff and

Frank married Marilyn Yvonne Howell, daughter of Arthur and Beulah Evans Howell. Marilyn was born 25 April 1935. She graduated at Lucedale High in 1953. After his marriage, Frank worked as a pipe-fitter at Ingall's Shipbuilding Corporation for 15 years. #### INTRODUCTION

The State of Tennessee came into existence in 1796 as the sixteenth state to enter the Union. Many of the early settlers came from Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina. In 1768 an early settlement was established along the Watauga River. Other settlers soon moved to the areas along the Holston and Nolichucky Rivers.

In 1776 North Carolina designated this section as Washington County, which eventually covered all of the current area of Tennessee. North Carolina then handed the area to the federal government to assure protection for the territory. The area was organized by its citizens as the State of Franklin.

Many of the early settlements were developed by English and Scotch-Irish immigrants who came into the state through the Virginia Shenandoah Valley. The primary routes for settlement were across the Appalachian Mountains through the Cumberland Gap and the Newfound Gap.

It should be noted that the Land Office for receiving and registering land grants was in Nashville. Settlers were required to go to Nashville to register land for all sections of Tennessee and Alabama. Between the time of the earliest settlers' entry into this area and the 1830 Census, many Childers/Childress families had made Tennessee their home. They are listed in the Census Records in Section 4 of this book.

Childress Family

Childress

Moses R. Childress, my grandfather, told me his people came here from Georgia with the Broadus, Ward, and Roger families. In 1953, Grandpa told me that William Childress was his Granddaddy. He lived in Jackson County, Beat 4. Bartholomew Childress was William's brother and Sarah Childress Ward was his sister.

Bartholomew Childress came to Jackson County about 1817. His name appears on the third Land Grant for Jackson County. He was married to Nancy Ann Ward. She was sister to Darleton Ward Sr. who married Sarah Childress. Bartholomew was Sheriff and Tax Assessor for Jackson County 1824-25. He signed the State Census for Jackson County in 1825.

My Great-Grandfather, William Childress, did not come to Mississippi with Sarah b. 1796 in Va. and Bartholomew b. 1800 in S.C. He came between 1825-1830. According to Dunbar Rawland, Mississippi Historian, William fought in the War of 1812. I have no other proof.

I was unable to find Nancy Ann after 1850.
I have searched the Census. William permitted
Caroline, his youngest, to go to Baldwin Co.,
Alabama, with Bartholomew's daughter, Nancy Harriet Childress Holloway, in 1857. The Holloways were teachers. Caroline was educated in Baldwin County and married Joseph S. Nelson.
William died soon after Caroline went to Baldwin Co.

INTRODUCTION

The Revolutionary War was a bitter conflict of friend against friend and brother against brother. The battles raged in all sections of the colonies from Maine to Georgia and the Atlantic to the frontiers in Tennessee and Ohio. Many times during the War attitudes of individuals changed and in some cases the side an individual fought on changed also. In some situations the change was one of bitterness, revenge, or survival. There is documentation of some Childers/Childress' who served on both sides.

The following documents were compiled by Mary Childress Rouse from records of Revolutionary War veterans' applications for benefits. One of the requirements of qualification was that the individual show dire need. In many instances veterans, though having served honorably, could not demonstrate need and were therefore rejected. Many family members served in the conflict but did not make application.

The attached documents will provide proof of service, but the fact that a name does not appear is not proof of nonservice.

FOREWORD

This document is a compilation of some of the Revolutionary War Records of the CHILDERS/ CHILDRESS family.

We wish to thank those who so generously shared their research with us. Mary Childress Rouse sent to Washington for each person's record she researched. Upon receipt of the records, she carefully transcribed the records and typed them. She has willingly allowed our group to benefit from her efforts. All of us appreciate this tremendous contribution.

Also included are some of the records which Molly Reigard made available through the newsletter - CHILDRESS CHATTER. Molly began this newsletter in July 1979. It was through her efforts in this regard that our Association was organized in 1982. We wish to thank Molly for her many years of sharing family research.

BENJAMIN CHILDRESS
Revolutionary War R. 1926
Virginia

State of Virginia
County of Albemarle

This day personally appeared before me, a Justice of the Peace, in, and for the county and state aforesaid, Benjamin Childress, a soldier in the War of the Revolution, who being duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath, make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed July 7th 1832.

In the year of 1780 being then sixteen years of age, I performed a tour of service. Left home in October under Capt. John Christian - James Montgomery and Robert Wright, Lieuts. which service was performed below and in Richmond being a two months tour, and returned home a few days before Christmas. In the year 1781, I performed another tour of service under Capt. James Pumplin - Joseph Stapler and John Horsley, Lieuts. which tour was also performed below Richmond being stationed at Manfrian Hill. We were returned one week after our time expired, waiting for the arrival of other companies to supply our place, making two months and one week. Not more than two weeks after I had returned from duty last tour I was again ordered into service to march to York town where Corn Wallace was stationed. Being then reduced to a mere skeleton by a wasting disease during my last tour of service, my friends were generally of the opinion that I never would recover. Major William Hams applied to Col. Hugh Rose and obtained a furlough until I might recover. Before my health was restored, Cornwallace was captured and the army was disbanded which furlough with the other two tours of service performed will I hope be considered at least equivalent to six months service. I was eighty six years of age the 3rd of last April. Given under my hand this 13th day of November, 1850.

certificate is now and was at the date thereof an acting Justice of the Peace in and for the said county duly competent and qualified. And that his signature thereto is genuine.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my name and affixed the Seal of said Court this 4th day of December 1850 in the 75th year of the Commonwealth

Ira Carcetti, Clk.

State of Virginia
County of Albemarle

This day personally appeared before me a Justice of the Peace in and for the county and state aforesaid, Samuel Childress who being duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following statement.

I recollect distinctly that in the fall of year 1780, Benjamin Childress, an older Brother of mine was called into service and performed a regular tour and was discharged, which tour of service to the best of my recollection was two months. And again in the summer of 1781 he performed another tour and a particular circumstance reminds me that that tour of service was protracted even a week beyond the usual time which delay was occasioned by being detained waiting the arrival of other companies. He was wasted by sickness being unable to travel. On his return home his health was so bad that his friends generally dispaired of his recovery. I have no distinct recollection of his being called into service during his sickness or of his obtaining a furlough after having performed his last tour of service. Only what he has told me for many years past even before pensions were allowed. And further your deponent saith not. Given under my hand this 18th day of November, 1850.

Samuel Childress

Sworn to and subscribed before me 11th day and year above written.

GOOLSBERRY (GOLDSBY) CHILDERS
Revolutionary Soldier S 30924
Virginia - Kentucky

State of Kentucky, Lincoln County Circuit Court

Be it remembered that on the 11th day of August, 1818, and on the second day of the August term of the Lincoln Circuit Court Goldsby Childers came personally into court before Thos Montgomery, Circuit Judge presiding in this said court, and stated the following facts on oath, viz, that he the said Goldsby Childers did enlist for the term of two years in October or November, 1776, in the company commanded by Capt. McKee, now dec'd, and was attached to the 12th Regt. on continental establishment; that he marched under his said Capt. in March, 1777, to Point Pleasant where he remained in the service until the fall of the year 1778; he then returned to the interior of the country and was duly and regularly discharged after the expiration of his two years service; he further says that after the conclusion of the war he did not regard his discharge or a paper of any consequence to him and cannot now account for it otherwise than by saying first he was discharged and that he cannot now find his discharge among his papers; he further states that he has been an industrious man and a temperate man all his life; he has by his wife thirteen children, ten of whom were raised to be men and women - they have now all left him but one son who is eleven years old last April.

This deponent has no other person to help him make a living but his son, he is himself sixty-one years old the first day of last January and is now unable to do much work. This deponent has a small farm of about ninety six acres of land, considerably out of repair and would not in his opinion rent for enough to support his old woman in the manner she has been accustomed to live; he therefore says that he stands in need of assistance from his country.

Goldsby Childers

At the same time and place and before the same person Samuel McKee, a creditable witness personally appeared and made oath to the following facts. First, that it appears by a book kept by William McKee dec'd, late a Capt. in the Virginia Regt. on continental establishment, and the father of this deponent, that Goldsby Childers was enlisted in his company in November, 1777, and did receive pay for two years. All the entries in the said book are in my deceased father's hand writing and the receipts for pay bounty and clothing are signed by this said Goldsby Childers and attested by James Gilmore, Lieut. in the said company, who is now wholly deranged; and this deponent further says that he has a perfect knowledge of the hand writing both of the said James Gilmore and his father and the entries on the said book are in his father's hand writing and the attestation aforesaid in the hand writing of the said James Gilmore; he further states that he has heard his Father in his life time as well in the presence as in the absence of the said Goldsby Childers recapitulate the incidents of the campaign and the anecdotes that related to them individually, and therefore, he has no manner of doubt but that the said Goldsby Childers did serve as aforesaid; he further declares that the statement of the said Childers in relation to his circumstances is substantially correct; he cannot enter into particulars, but he does know that he is unable to live as decently as he is accustomed to live without laboring hard and constantly himself.

JOHN CHILDRESS
Revolutionary Soldier S-3146
Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, West Tennessee

State of Tennessee
Rutherford County

Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions
November Sessions 1832

On this 22nd day of November 1832 personally appeared in open court before Henry Trott, Harry Dalamison, and Varner D. Cowern, the justices of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions for the said County of Rutherford, now sitting, John Childress, a resident in the county and state aforesaid, aged 77 years who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed July 7th, 1832: That he entered the service of the United States as a volunteer under Col. Shephard in the month of May, as he believes, 1780, at least in the May after Charleston was taken by the British, but he cannot state the day of the month. He served in the company commanded by Capt. James Shephard. Joseph Winston & Davidson were majors under Colonel Shephard whose Regiment of Cavalry collected at Surry County Courthouse, North Carolina, & from that place directed their course across the Yadkin river, through Salisbury & down a few miles below the Egnew's where Gen. Rutherford had headquarters. During this march applicant continued with Col. Shephard's troop of horses with which he was sent by Gen. Rutherford against the Tories and British to the mouth of Rocky river on the Pedee. He was there in a skirmish with the British & Tories in which the Whigs lost a few men, & the enemy were entirely defeated. Gen. Rutherford soon after came on to the mouth of Rocky river, & sent Col. Shephard (with whom he still continued) back to Surry County to reconnoiter & prevent the rising of the Tories. They there scouted after the Tories until they heard of the approach of Col. Ferguson. There came a false report to Surry County that the Whig Col. Cleveland was defeated by Ferguson. Applicant with 3 others under Capt. Jas. Shephard voluntarily went to Wilks County Court House to know the certainty of the report. They there volunteered under Colonel Cleveland & marched with him the next day towards King's Mountain. At the Cowpens on their way their spies returned & told them where Ferguson was. They hurried on their march, & fell in with Cols. Campbell, Sevier, & Shelby. The evening of the same day they had the battle of King's Mountain, in which applicant was wounded. After the battle was over, they marched to Col. Walker's where applicant remembers that 9 of the prisoners were hung and Baldwin made his escape. Thence they went to Moravian town where applicant was permitted to return home, in the month of October as he believes, but cannot remember with certainty, 1780. He did not receive a written discharge.

Afterwards in November 1780, as applicant believes, he was appointed forage master to the troops commanded by Col. Joseph Phillips & stationed at Salisbury to guard the prisoners, who he was informed & believes, had been taken by Morgan at the Cowpens. It was then heard that Cornwallis was approaching, & the Whigs moved the prisoners from Salisbury to the next county - to Surry Town on Dab's river where the widow Carmical lived. On the way to the barracks in Prince Edward or Albemarle County, Virginia, applicant was then appointed & served as waggon master to convey the tax grain in Surry County, North Carolina to Camden, South Carolina for the use of Gen. Green's army after the battle of Guilford. He was dismissed from service as waggon master in September or October 1781. Mathew Brooks was at this time his quartermaster. He received no written discharge & can not remember dates with accuracy, but as forage & waggon master he believes he served at least ten months.

Applicant, soon after his discharge from service as waggon master, moved to Kentucky, Fayette County, & sought protection in Bryant's Fort where he was when said fort was attacked by the Indians in the year 1782 as he believes. He was with Col. John Todd when he pursued the Indians to Blue Lick where he was defeated by the Indians under the command of Simon McGurty. In the fall after the Blue Lick defeat applicant went under the command of Gen. Clark in Col. Daniel Boone's regiment to the Shawnee town which they burned having taken it without a battle. Applicant was in a scouting party near Shawnee town under Col. Logan & remembers that they killed & scalped 16 Indians. He remained in Bryant's Fort for about two years & was not out of it any length of time except on the occasion of going to the Blue Lick & Shawnee town above stated.

Applicant was born, as he was told by his parents & as he believes, on the 5th of May 1755 in Cumberland County, Virginia, where he resided until about one year before the British took Charleston, when he moved to N. Carolina, Surry County where he lived until after the battle of Guilford, & until he went to Kentucky as above stated. When he left Bryant's Fort he made his way to Tennessee on Red river, thence to Mansco's Station ten or twelve miles above Nashville. Applicant lived in Tennessee about two years when he moved to South Carolina, Laurens County, where he married Martha Calhoon, a daughter of Thos. Calhoon (a sister of the vice-President). He resided there about 18 years, perhaps more, when he moved to Sevier County, Tennessee, where he resided till about the year 1826 when he moved to Rutherford County where he now resides.

Applicant lived in Surry County, N. Carolina when he entered the service of the Revolution. He has no record of his age. He never served in the Revolution in any capacity except as a volunteer. He knows of no one now living who remembers to have served with him in the Revolutionary War, by whom he could make actual positive proof of his service. He never had a written discharge. He submits this statement with the best proof in his power to give. The following persons, his present neighbours, he believes will testify to his veracity and this statement - to wit, Gideon Rucker, Thomas Powell, William McFerrer, John Hollis, and Joseph Soape.

Applicant in February in the year 1830 went before William Lytle, Esqr. of Davidson County, Tennessee & made on oath a declaration for the purpose of getting a pension on account of his being wounded in the Revolution. He then obtained the affidavit of Thomas Norman, a fellow soldier of the Revolution, proving the fact of his being wounded and his services in the Revolution. Said declaration & affidavit as then made are herewith transmitted. Said Norman is now dead, but was a resident of Nashville, Tennessee, & for said Norman's character as a man of truth applicant refers to President Jackson, the Hon. Felix Grundy, & the Hon. Jno. Bell. The fact stated in said declaration that applicant entered the service of the United States in the year 1778, was a mistake either of himself or Esqr. Lytle who wrote it for him. He thinks he entered the service in 1780, at least it was after Charleston was taken by the British as above stated.

Applicant hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present, & declares that his name is not on the pension roll of any state.

Sworn to and subscribed the day & year aforesaid.

John Childress
(Beautiful penmanship)

We Gideon Rucker, a clergyman, and Thomas Powell, Esqr., both residing in the County of Rutherford and State of Tennessee, hereby certify, that we are well acquainted with John Childress, who has subscribed & sworn to the above declaration; that we believe him to be seventy-seven years of age as by him stated; that he is reputed and believed in the neighbourhood where he resides to have been a soldier of the Revolution, & that we concur in that opinion.

Sworn to & subscribed the day & year aforesaid.

J. R. Laughlin, Clk.

And the said court do hereby declare their opinion, after the investigation of the matter, & after putting the interrogations prescribed by the War Department that the above said John Childress served as stated in the Revolutionary War.

JOHN CHILDRESS
Revolutionary War S 2423
Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee

State of Tennessee
Knox County

County Court January Sessions 1833

On the 9th day of January 1833, personally appeared in open court, at a Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions now sitting for the County aforesaid, being a court of record, John Childress, a citizen of said county, aged seventy three years, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefits of the provisions of an Act of Congress passed 7th June 1832.

That he was born in Albemarle County, Virginia on the 2nd day of December 1759, where he resided but a short time untill he moved to Amherst County, Va. where he continued to live at the time of the commencement, and during the continuancy of the Revolutionary War, and after its termination to the year 1785 or 86 as well as he now recollects. That sometime in August 1778 as well as he now recollects the Militia of Amherst County were called out and put under the command of Genl. McIntosh & Col. Broadhead, and he now thinks that he entered the said army as a volunteer and was immediately put under the command of Captain Roger Shackleford who was detailed for the purpose driving and taking charge of the beef cattle intended for the supply of the army & that the said army under the command of the said Genl. McIntosh marched from Amherst County, through Stantown, Va. and crossed the Alleghany Mountain at Braddocks Old Trace and crossed the Manongahala river at a place called the boat-yard, from here the army marched to the Ohio River and built Fort McIntosh, which they occupied a few months, and then crossed the Ohio River and marched to the Muskingum river where they remained sometime, but how long applicant does not now recollect. Applicant states that about the time the army left Amherst County he with some others under the command of the said Captain Shackleford were ordered to take charge of the beef cattle and drove them on in the rear of the troops (photographed print missing on last line of page one) ordered to drive on a portion of the cattle to the place where the said Fort McIntosh was afterwards erected, and applicant under the command of Captain Richard Gaffert was ordered to drive the balance of the cattle down upon Racoon Creek for the purpose of procuring pastorage. Applicant states that he remained on Racoon Creek tending the cattle under the command of the said Captain Gaffert untill the army had returned from the Muskingum to Fort McIntosh, when the said Captain Gaffert received orders to drive the cattle into a settlement on Muddy Creek and expose them to sales, the army having marched back and being discharged. Applicant states that in pursuance of his orders the said Captain Gaffert drove the said cattle of which he had had charge, to Muddy Creek and there sold them, after which applicant and those who had been with him under the command of the said Captain marched back and were discharged in Staunton. Applicant states that he reached home on the 22nd of February and that he thinks he was discharged on the 20th two days before, and he states that his discharge mentioned a "six months service" - Applicant states that during the whole service he never was in actual contact with the main army, but always in its immediate neighbourhood and at all time subject to the commands and discipline of the commanding General. Applicant states that sometime in the fall of 1779 he together with a portion of the Militia of Amherst County was ordered out for one month to guard the Hopian prisoners then stationed at Albemarle barracks - that he entered the army at some place in Amherst County; and was enrolled into a company commanded by Captain Richard Woodruff, which company was attached to a Regiment under the command of Col. Taylor - with this company and regiment applicant marched to Albemarle barracks where he remained doing service untill the month for which he had been ordered out, had expired, when he was discharged and returned home.

Applicant states that sometime in the (words not photographed at bottom of page 2) among when a certain William Davis was drafted, but he being unwilling from circumstances to go, he hired applicant as his substitute, accordingly applicant met his company at Amherst Courthouse and enrolled himself as a substitute for the said William Davis into a company commanded by Captain William Tucker, under whose command applicant with his company marched directly to Marobin Hills, here our company lay about a week and then marched directly to Williamsburg, where we remained two or three days, and then marched directly to the half way house, between Old Hampton and Little York, where we met the main army of Militia under the command of Genl. Nelson. There we remained about two weeks, when all the militia then present marched under the command of Genl. Nelson to Little York, where we met the regular army under the command of LaFayette. Applicant well recollects that while they lay at York LaFayette gave them a sham fight and then reviewed their troops. Applicant states that he had entered the service for two months only, but at the expiration of this time, the new guys not having arrived to supply their place, they were retained very much to their dissatisfaction, for two or three weeks after the two months for which they had been drafted, had expired, when they were marched back to Richmond and there discharged. Applicant states that altho, he had entered the service for two months only, yet it was nearly three months before he was discharged. Applicant states that he has served as above mentioned one campaign of six months against the Indians as a private in the Revolutionary War, one campaign of one month as a private in guarding the Hopian prisoners, and one campaign of between two and three months and fifteen days as a substitute against the British Army making in all between nine and ten months and fifteen days of actual service for which he claims a pension. Applicant states that he has a record of his age in his family Bible which was taken from an old record in his Mother's Bible. He states that he lived in Amherst County when he entered the service, while he was in the army and afterwards untill sometime in the year 1785 or 86 when he moved to Burke County, North Carolina where he continued to live about one year, when he moved to Wilke County, N. C. where he lived about seven or eight years, and then moved to the same neighbourhood in Knox County, Tennessee, where he has continued to live ever since and now lives. Applicant states that the persons in his neighbourhood who have long known him, and who can testify to his veracity and the reputation of his military services are Joshua Frost, Page Portwood, James Epperison.

Applicant states that he received written discharges for each of his campaigns, that he afterwards transferred all his claims upon the Government to different individuals, and gave them use his discharges, and he does not now know where they are to be found; he states that he now has neither of said discharges nor any documentary evidence whatever of his said services, nor does he know of any person whose testimony he can procure who can testify to his services. He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or an annuity, except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter in which you request the Revolutionary War record of John Childers or Childress who resided in Forsythe County, Georgia in 1849, and who was pensioned under the Act of April 24, 1816. You state that you examined in 1930-31, the papers in the claim for pension, S. 3146, based upon service of John Childress who was living in White County, Illinois, in 1832, aged sixty-eight years, and desire to know whether or not he were the one of Georgia.

There is no claim for pension on file based upon service in the Revolutionary War of a John Childers, Childress, etc., of Georgia. It is not shown in pension claim, S. 3146, that John Childress ever lived in Georgia. The pensioner, John Childress, of White County, Illinois, was not the one whose record is on file under S. 3146, but under S. 31609. The one whose file number is S. 3146, was a Rutherford County, Tennessee, pensioner.

MITCHELL CHILDRESS
Revolutionary War S-2426
North Carolina, East Tennessee, Georgia,
Virginia

State of Tennessee
Knox County

County Court Session 1833

On the 10th day of January 1833 personally appeared in open court at a Court of Pleas and Quarter Session for said county now sitting, Mitchell Childress, a citizen of said county, aged eighty-two years who having been duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provisions of an act of Congress passed June 7th 1832 - That he was born in Henrico County, Virginia on the 23rd day of October 1750, where he lived but a few years untill he moved to Amherst County, Va. where he lived several years and married there, and then moved to Wilks County, North Carolina where he lived about one year and then moved to Georgia. He recollects that he reached Georgia sometime in May, and he does not now recollect whether there were any counties then laid out in that part of Georgia, but his impression now is that he went to what was then called the Palowill (?) of Georgia. He remained in Georgia untill sometime in the latter part of November following when having taken the fever and ague he moved up on the waters of Low River in Burke County, North Carolina, for the object of recovering his health, where he lived untill sometime in May or June when being alarmed at the outrages of the Indians he moved back into the same neighbourhood in Wilks County, North Carolina where he had formerly lived. He states that he cannot at this time recollect what year it was he moved from Georgia, but he recollects distinctly that a few days after he had left Georgia, the news reached him that the Whigs and Tories had had a battle at a place then called the Snow Camps, afterwards Ninety-Six, and that the Whigs were victorious. He continued after this second settlement in Wilks County to live there during the whole of the Revolutionary War. Applicant states that very shortly after his second settlement in Wilks County, he entered the Army of the United States as a volunteer for a tour against the Indians. He was enrolled in Burke County, N. C., into a company commanded by Captain Frank Hargraves, which company was attached to a Battalion under the command of Major Jesse Walton, and he now thinks his Regiment was commanded by Col. Armstrong and the whole army by Genl. Rutherford as commander-in-chief. He also believes that his Lieutenant was William Lensin. Applicant states that the whole army consisting of about five thousand redesignated at Buck Creek in Burke County, North Carolina and remaining there a few weeks to get supplies marched over the mountain to the head waters of French-broad river, crossed it, Little and Big Pigion rivers, Little river, Little Tennessee river, and the Highwassee river. Applicant states that the main army lay at the Middle towns in the Cherokee Nation, while he with a detachment of about fifteen hundred men was sent up the Hiwassee river, he thinks under Col. Locke or Knox, for the purpose of destroying the overhill town of the Oherokees. This detachment marched up the Hiwassee but before they reached the place where the Indians had embodied, they met a part of the Southern Army, who had been in pursuit of the same object and had scattered and defeated the Indians, upon which our detachment marched back to the main army. After they had marched about through the Nation and destroyed the crops of the Indians, and burned their towns, and killed those that could be found. The main army marched back along the same general route to Burke County, N. C. The army was disbanded and applicant returned home. Applicant thinks he got home in the latter part of November and thinks as well as he now recollects that he was in actual service in the campaign at least three months. Applicant states that sometime as well as he now recollects in the month of August, he does not know whether the August immediately succeeding this first campaign or not, he volunteered to take another tour against the Indians. He joined and enrolled himself at some place in Burke County, N. C. into a company of horsemen commanded by Captain George Foster, who was under the command of Colonel Benjamin Herrington. Under the command of the said officers applicant marched across the mountains to the waters of Frenchbroad river which they crossed, and crossing Little and Bill Pigeon rivers, Little river, and Little Tennessee, they marched about through the Cherokee Nation, killed a few of the Indians, burned their towns, cut down their corn, and returned by the same route, and were discharged. Applicant thinks he was in service in this campaign between two and three months.

Applicant states that sometime in the month of June, 1781, as well as he now recollects, he recollects well that he was ploughing his corn at the time, the Militia of Wilk's County were ordered out to suppress the Tories, he was one of the class who was ordered out and was enrolled as a private into a company commanded by Captain James Henderson, who was attached to a Regiment under the command of Colonel Benjamin Cleveland. Under these officers applicant marched with his Regiment to Ramsours Mill in what is now Lincoln County, N. C. where it was understood the Tories had embodied in considerable force. Before applicant and his Regiment however could reach Ramsour's Mill the Whigs and Tories had met there and the Tories were driven off. Applicant well recollects when he reached the battle ground the Whigs were engaged in burying the slain. The night after they reached Ramsours there came an express to Col. Cleveland informing him that the Tories under Col. Hannon were collecting near Salisbury. Colonel Cleveland ordered his men to march there with all haste. Applicant states that he marched with his Company in that direction until his horse was so overcome that he could go no further, and his Captain gave him leave to go home. Applicant thinks he was out in actual service at least one month in this campaign. Applicant states that sometime in the month of March or April following the last campaign, the Militia of Wilks County were all ordered out, and applicant was enrolled into a company commanded by Captain John Cleveland, who was under the command of his father, Col. Benjamin Cleveland. Under these officers applicant marched down to Cross Creek, or Salisbury where it was said the Tories under Col. Hannan were collecting. Applicant states his Regiment marched to the Swan Ponds, on the Yadkin river and were stationed at Major Lewis' eleven days, when Col. Cleveland discharged half of his Regiment applicant among the rest when he returned home. Applicant thinks he was in service in this campaign at least one month. Applicant states that from his age and the long time which has elapsed since his services have been performed, he cannot recollect distinctly the time he was in service, but he feels confident that he must have been in actual service at least seven months as a private, for which he claims a pension. Applicant states he has no record of his age, but from the information of his mother, he believes he has stated his age truly. He states that he lived in Wilks County, N. C. during the whole of his services in the Revolutionary War and for several years after the war, when he moved to Greene County, Tenn. where he lived one year when he moved to Knox County, Tenn. where he now resides and has lived for forty years. He states that the persons with whom he is acquainted in his neighbourhood who can testify as to his veracity and the reputation of his military service are Joshua Frost, Mordecai Yarnell, Elijah Hickey, James Scott, and William Mornis. He states that he never received a discharge, to the best of his recollection, for any of his services, nor has he any documentary evidence whatever of his services, nor does he know of any person whose testimony he can procure who can testify to his services. He hereby relinquishes all claim to an annuity or pension except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state.

ROBERT CHILDRRESS
Revolutionary War R.1929
Virginia

Declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832.

State of Virginia
Franklin County

On this 2nd day of August 1834 personally appeared before me, one of the Justices of the county Court of Franklin, Robert Childress, a resident of the state & county aforesaid, aged 78, who being sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7, 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States and served under the following named officers and served as before stated.
The year he entered the service he can not at this distance of time recollect (his memory being much infirmed by age and disease).
He resided at that time in the County Amelia of this state; that he was drafted into the service aforesaid under the command of Capt. Hudson & marched to Chickohomony River & was in service some 25 or 30 days he believes the latter period but wishing if he errors at all (and feels there is great danger of it) he errors on the safe side; he therefore puts it down to 25 days. He don't recollect who were the field officers or if there were any. He rather thinks there were none. He thinks he was dismissed before he reached headquarters.

After this (he don't pretend to remember daily) he was called out for the purpose of guarding military stores to Williamsburg & was detained in service some 7 or 8 weeks & probably more but acting on the principle aforesaid, he says 7 weeks; in this expedition he was under the command of Capt. Hudson. After this he was called out under the command of Capt. Booker & marched some 8 or 10 miles below Petersburg to an old church & detained in this service some 20 or 30 days - say 20. He thinks there was no field officers not having reached the place rendezvous before he was dismissed.

He was next called out to guard the horses that were collecting by impressments in the County round about & was detained in this service two weeks.

After this (dates not recollected) he was drafted under the command of Capt. Hudson who died and was put under the command of Capt. Duprey. There was three colonels: Randolph, Tucker, and Holcomb. He thinks the Regiment to which he belonged was commanded by Col. Randolph. The brigade was commanded by Genl. Lawson.
The army was commanded by Genl. Green; that on this expedition he was at the battle of Guilford; that he marched through the southern part of Virginia & northern part of North Carolina. In this expedition he served 3 months. He thinks he was disbanded without any regular discharge, but in this his memory does not serve him. That on this last expedition he was appointed orderly sergeant.

He recollects distinctly he was ordered to hold himself in readiness at all times from the time he was first drafted to march at a moments warning and was subject to various & frequent calls to different places of attack & various services but as he can not specify time & circumstances with any thing like certainty he forebears to attempt it. That it will be seen he can only specify with anything like certainty 6 months & 13 days tho' he is confident of much longer time, for this kind of service as will be seen above; he was liable & was frequently called out sometimes for short periods only, a day or a night at the time, sometimes a few hours only. Thus being engaged off & on during the greater part of the war he had formerly tho' he was entitled to claim from the beginning to the end of his service which would be greatly more than 2 years, but if he is wrong in this he must submit to be restricted to the time which he is enabled to specify tho' greatly under what he actually served if his memory would serve him, which he repeats is greatly impaired by age & disease. This he states, however: He can see but little or no difference in being in camp & at home employed as he was, liable to be called out any moment & was called out frequently as above stated. He knows of no person but a certain John Gill by whom he can prove any part of his service whose affidavit is annexed hereto; that he has no documentary evidence.

He hereby relinquishes every claim wheter to a pension or annuity except the present & declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state.

Sworn & subscribed this day & year aforesaid.

R. Childress-

Benjamin Booth, J.P.

We John I. Wells and Stephen Ferson residing in the same county aforesaid hereby certify that we are well acquainted with Robert Childress who has subscribed & sworn to above declaration and that we believe him to be 78 or 79 years of age & that he is reported & believed in the neighborhood where he resides to have been a soldier of the Revolution and we concur in that opinion.

Note: Robert Childress was not allowed pension on his declaration. In reading the statement one can perceive the negative attitude of the J. P., Benjamin Booth. He is listed by genealogists as a Revolutionary soldier.

Dear Madam:

Reference is made to your letter in which you request the Revolutionary War record of Robert Childress of Prince Edward County, Virginia.

You are furnished herein the record of Robert Childress as found in claim for pension, R. 1929, based upon his service in the War of the Revolution. This is the record of the only Robert Childress, under any spelling of the surname, found in the Revolutionary War pension records of this office. You were furnished this record May 18, 1933.

The date and place of birth of Robert Childress, and names of his parents are not given in the claim.

Robert Childress applied for pension August 2, 1834, at which time he was seventy-eight years old, and living in Franklin County, Virginia.

He alleged that while residing in Amelia County, Virginia, he served with the Virginia troops, as follows-

About twenty-five or thirty days in Captain Hudson's Company; again in same company about seven or eight weeks guarding the military stores in Williamsburg; about twenty or thirty days in Captain Booker's Company; about two weeks as guard over some horses; three months as orderly sergeant in Capt. Hudson's and Dupuy's Companies, Colonel Randolph's regiment, and was in the battle of Guilford Court House. He gave no dates of any of his services.

The claim for pension was not allowed as he did not furnish proof of six months' service, as required by the pension law.

On this 23rd day of October 1832 personally appeared before the Court of Halifax County now sitting William Childrey a resident of Halifax County and State of Virginia, aged seventy two years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June the 7th 1832. That he enlisted in the month of May or June 1776 in the County of Charlotte Virginia for five years with Captain John Bront and marched with him to Prince Edward Courthouse where we remained for some time, from thence to Richmond and from there by the Bowling green into the State of Maryland. We were then attached to the 5th or 6th Regiment under the command of Major Brice and Col. Call in Genl Mulenburg Brigade. During my enlistment I was with many officers that I do not now recollect, for sometime I was with Genl. Waine. I was principally in the State of Virginia and Maryland. I was in a battle with the British at the Peach Orchard near Norfolk. We marched from there to the Blue Ridge in Virginia. We were followed by the British and had an engagement with them at Pumanky River. We had another battle with them on the side of the Blue Ridge. We drove them back to a place called Hot Water near Williamsburg and had a battle at that place. They kept the ground, we afterwards had a very severe battle with them at Jamestown just before my term of five years ended, after which I was discharged by Genl. Waine at Jamestown in the month of June 1781. My discharge is lost and cannot be found. I received an order from Genl. Waine for my bounty land, which I gave to Mr. James Eastham of Halifax County some years past for a small piece of poor land that I now live on. I have no documentary evidence except my own declaration which was recorded in Halifax Court in August 1823, in order then to obtain a pension under the Act of Congress passed in the year 1818, which was rejected on account (as I was informed) of my Estates being worth at that time a little more than two hundred dollars.

I was born in the County of Charlotte in the State of Virginia, I suppose in the year 1760. I have no record of my age. I resided in the County of Charlotte when I enlisted in the army of the Revolution. I lived in the said County of Charlotte about twenty years after the War was over. I then moved to the County of Halifax, Virginia and have lived in that County ever since.

I here by relinquish every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declare that my name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state.

WILLIAM CHILDRRESS
Revolutionary War
Virginia-North Carolina
South Carolina-Kentucky
Tennessee

State of Tennessee

White County                      On the 16th day of July, 1833, personally appears before Samuel H. Ables and William Irvis Arling, Justices of the Peace for the County of White, William Childress, a resident of White County and State of Tennessee, aged seventy-one years by the 25th day of December next who first being duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of an Act of Congress passed June the 7th 1832. That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated.

He believes it was in the year 1777 he lived in Caswell County, State of North Carolina, he was drafted in the Company commanded by Capt. William White as a private soldier in which capacity he served the whole of the time for which he was drafted to go against the British. This was a six months tour - Capt. White's Company repaired to Hillsborough, North Carolina, and there joined Gen'l Rutherford from Hillsborough. They proceeded to Parisburg on Savannah River in South Carolina and there joined the army under the command of Gen'l Lincoln. There they remained about six weeks with Gen'l Lincoln's army at Parisburg. No thing remarkable happened while they remained. After remaining thus long Gen'l Lincoln detached Gen'l Rutherford with his North Carolina troops, those under Gen'l Rutherford's immediate command, up the Savannah River to a place called the Two Sisters for the purpose of guarding the river and endeavouring, if possible, to keep the enemy from crossing the river over into South Carolina. This declarant was along on this occasion, and under the command of Gen'l Rutherford they remained there about six weeks. The British did not cross nor did any thing remarkable happen during their stay at this place. Gen'l Rutherford then received orders to go about twenty-four miles further up the river to the mouth of a creek called Brier Creek. There he joined Gen'l Nash who this declarant thinks had about 1500 men under his command. He thinks that the united forces of Gen'l Rutherford and Gen'l Nash might be about 3000, but in this he is not certain. Here at the mouth of Brier Creek immediately on Gen'l Rutherford's arrival a battle took place with some British troops. He thinks under the command of Col Brown that the enemy was victorious. He believes that the Americans lost in killed and prisoners between 4 and 500. As our troops retreated they came back to the place called the Two Sisters on the Savannah where he remained until his six months service expired. He then received a discharge from his Capt., William White, and returned home to Caswell County, North Carolina where he the said William Childress remained about ten months. He then went to see his grandfather, William Vaughn, who lived in the District of 96 in South Carolina. He then enlisted in the regular army under Capt. John Ridgeway. He does not recollect the number of the Regiment, but it was commanded by Col. Hays. The name of his Lieutenant was Walern. He enlisted for two years and believes it was in the year 1778 about the month of July. Col. Hays Regiment joined Gen'l Morgan's Army in South Carolina as the Enoward Waters. After joining Gen'l Morgan's Army, the first important service he rendered was to go with Col. Washington to a place called Hammond's Old Store where he was in a hand engagement with the Tories. He believes that the detachment under Col. Washington amounted to about 500 horsemen. He thinks that they killed about seventy or eighty Tories on the ground and took about as many prisoners and many of their horses and pursued them 7 or 8 miles. The next day about sixty-three of this detachment went to a fort called William's Fort which the Tories were in possession of, and he the said William Childress was over of said party. They sent a flag calling upon the Tories to surrender in five number. They begged for half an hour, and it was granted. The Tories he supposes must have thought that there was an army in the rear for they left the Fort and supposes they amounted to 2 or 300 men making their escape at the opposite side from where we were. We did not pursue them but so soon as they were gone we burnt the Fort. Col. Washington's detachment returned and again joined Gen'l Morgan's Regiment. Important service he was in was the Battle of Cowpens. From this place the troops that he was with went towards North Carolina and fell in with Gen'l Green's Army at Broad River, South Carolina, and then rode Northward. They were closely pursued by Lord Cornwallaw and his army, but that he the said Wm Childress was not in any battle after the battle of the Battle of the Cowpens. The pursuit was kept up as far as Guilford in North Carolina. As they marched to that place and not far from thence the said declarant was taken sick with the agria and fever and being in the neighbourhood of his residence he obtained a furlough from his Capt., John Ridgeway. He remained sick upwards of six months and was extremely low and weak, and a great part of the time he was unable to walk and in this time his term of two years for which he enlisted as a private soldier and remained such to the end of his service of two years expired. He did not get a regular discharge as that account. The declarant knew Gen'l Green, Gen'l Morgan, Gen'l Lincoln, Gen'l Rutherford, Gen'l Nash and Col Hays and Col James Landers. His first tour in the Militia as above stated was for six months. His last enlistment was for two years but of this time he was sick about six months making in all two years and six months in actual service of the United States except the time as stated of being sick, and that he was not employed during his service in any gainful pursuit.

There is no liveing witness by whom he can prove his service by that he knows of and that he is too infirm to get to court without great inconvenience and risk.

Answers to the questions prescribed by the War Department and propounded by the Court.

1st He was born in Buckingham County 25 December, 1762.

2nd He has no record of his age. He depends upon information derived from his parents.

3rd When called into the Militia service he lived in Caswell County, North Carolina. He enlisted in the District Ninety-Six, South Carolina-after the close of the War he moved to Buckingham County, Virginia from thence he returned to Caswell County, North Carolina. From thence he removed to the District of Ninety-Six in South Carolina from thence to Rutherford County, North Carolina from thence to Madison County, Kentucky from thence to White County in the State of Tennessee where he now resides.

4th He was first drafted for six months and then enlisted in the regular service for two years both times served as a private soldier.

5th He has stated the names of such regular officers as he can recollect and the general circumstances of his services as fully as he can.

6th He received a discharge from his Captain William White at the expiration of his Militia service but he lost it many years ago and supposes that it was washed up in the pocket of his pantaloons. He knows that it is lost. He received no discharge from his regular service but was sick as above stated when his time expired. His furlough has long been lost.

7th He states the names of the following persons in his present neighbourhood to whom he is known and who can testify as to his character for veracity and their belief of his service as a soldier of the Revolution viz Isaac Taylor, James Townsend, Esqr. James Eastham, James Davis and the Reverend Henry Burlos.

He knows of no living witness by whom he can prove his services nor has he any documentary evidence by which the same can be established. As to his services in the Continental Army he is advised that his name does not appear on the rolls of South Carolina. Mr. Strickland:

The following is information I found in the "Church Book of the Baptists at Leona 1848-1877". This book included the minutes of the meetings of the "Leona Baptist Church of Christ," constituted Feb. 13, 1848. They are very vague and sketchy many times. I do not know whether this Elizabeth and William Childress are your people or not, but this is what the book has to offer. Meetings were held monthly beginning on the Friday night before the second Lord's Day and continuing through Monday at times.

First mention of the couple was made in the November meeting (22 members at this time) when "On Sunday William Childress related his experience and was received into the church after which the church retired to the water for the baptism." (In a creek probably, one morning in November!) No mention is made of Elizabeth's uniting with the church, but the list of members for the year 1850 show that she was a member by letter.

In the October minutes: "When the door of the church was opened for the reception of members on Sunday morning, a colored Sister by the name of Sarah the property of William Childress, came forward and related her experience and was unanimously received, the ordinance of baptism to be attended to at the next regular meeting in November."

November 1851: "I should have stated in the foregoing minutes the the colored Sister Sarah, property of Bro. Childress, was baptized this morning at 9 o'clock, ordinance performed by Bro. Wm. Clark. (Elder of the church at the time.)"

April 1853: "A charge was preferred against Bro. William Childress of intoxication and a committee was appointed to visit Bro. Childress and notify him of the charge and labor with him and request him to come before the church. Brs. Alexander Patrick, Robert Rogers and William Gillman were appointed." (In the same meeting another man was charged with unchristian conduct. He had moved to unknown parts and could not be notified of the charge pending against him, so he was excluded from the church by unanimous voice.)

May 1853: "In the Saturday meeting the case of Bro. Childress was held over until the next meeting. The committee reported Bro. Childress had promised to come before the church but had failed to do so. Same Committee was appointed to revisit him." (Don't know whether he was not quite ready to quit getting intoxicated yet, was providentially hindered, or thought "to heck" with the church Members." The minutes are silent as to his reason for delay.)

June 1853: "Bro. William Childress made satisfactory acknowledgment of charge made against him and stated that he had stepped aside from the path of duty and that he hoped the Lord had forgiven him and his transgressions and the church would also forgive him and in the future he would be more 'surcomspect'." By unanimous voice he was reinstated into full fellowship."

In the list of members for 1853, the word "dead" followed his name. Evidently sometime after the June meeting he died. Elizabeth's name is on this list but this is the last time her name appeared. If she remained in the community, she remarried for her name never appeared on the roll as Elizabeth Childress. I've checked the other "Female Members" on the rolls and I believe they were all members of the church when she was, so that possibility is eliminated. She probably had to take however many children she may have had and gone to relatives for help in caring for them. That happened so many times in days of old.

Childress

I shall watch for her name, or his, to appear in any research I make into the county's past. Should I find anything, I'll send you the information.

Now, Let's see, I believe you were going to send me a list of the people in Leon County at the time it was organized. I surely would appreciate it. We want any information we can get for our Historical Survey Committee files.

By the way, I have just recently learned that I have access to 3 years' files of the first newspaper printed in Leon County. And I may buy these on microfilm. This may prove to be a find for our committee. I'm having a little trouble ~~determining~~ <sup>determining</sup> the date of the first paper established. The books written by one of the two brothers who owned "The Leon Pioneer" state that the paper was established in Centerville in 1850, but a book of early verse taken from early newspapers shows one piece of poetry to be taken from an 1849 copy of The Pioneer. The books were written in 1899 and 1902, so the writer was from 49 to 52 years older than he was when the paper was established. His memory could have lapsed by two years as he wrote from memory. He appears to be very authentic on other dates which we are able to verify.

Good luck to you as you trace Elizabeth's life. Remember me if you find anything Leon County can use.

EARLY HISTORY OF JACKSON COUNTY Jackson Co. Miss - History

Correspondent writes of Brewton, One-Time Capital of the County

Why should I write of Brewton? If you read this you will find your answer, for the reading is evidence of sufficient interest to justify the writing. And more, the time is coming when those who know the facts will have passed away and legendary and traditional history will be less permanent and valuable than a written record. Let this be sufficient as a motive.

The spot known as Brewton is located in Jackson county, Mississippi, on the Pascagoula river, about ten miles south of the George county line and perhaps a little more than a score of miles from the coast, the distance being much greater if the river is followed from its mouth at Pascagoula. This spot is the first below Allman's Ferry where the river itself swings back to the pine hills on the western border of its six-mile swamp. In appearance it is a beautiful location, being high and sandy with stately oaks and some remnants of the lofty pines that once were so numerous in that section of the country. Near the river there are caves that cause one to think of robbers bold for whom these would and may have been places of refuge in days gone by. From these, springs flowed with clear crystal water. It was a spot to catch the eye of explorer, adventurer, settler, business man or pleasure seeker. We shall see whether this is true or not.

The first probable mention of this historic spot is in the account of the French explorer, Bienville, who in June, 1699, visited the Indian tribes and villages along the Pascagoula river. Since he ascended the river for a distance of forty-eight miles he must have passed and probably visited this very place. In April, 1700, Le Moyne D'Iberville ascended the river and came to the village of the Biloxi's about twenty miles from the mouth of the river, the people of which had been destroyed by sickness. Going on he found the village of the Pascagoulas also deserted. Below there were many deserted spots on both sides of the river marking former Indian habitations. Just which of these was Brewton it is impossible to say, though there is abundant evidence that it was once an Indian village. Many Indian relics have been collected there, such as arrow heads, pieces of pottery and one curious piece of tubing or piping made of brown sandstone or sand-rock about an inch in diameter and some six or eight inches in length, showing to have been broken from another piece of the same kind. The map of "Indian Tribes of the Lower Mississippi and Gulf Coast" places the village of the Biloxi Indians, mentioned above, about the location of Brewton. This accords with D'Iberville's statement that the village was twenty miles by land, otherwise the village must have been below this spot. That the worthy explorer had his geography slightly mixed is shown by his statement that Mobile was to the northeast. At any rate, Brewton was undoubtedly one of the Indian villages visited by the French.

We know nothing of its history for more than a hundred years, until the time when the Jackson county courthouse was at this place. No record of this fact exists, subsequent courthouse being burned, but it is attested by the oldest citizens and by a pit, still in existence, that formed the cellar of the old jail. This being the first courthouse, it is no record of cases tried, but the story has come down of a person named Dismick or Dismet who was given thirty-nine lashes--it was the day of the whipping post--for stealing cloth by one Thad Childres, either sheriff, deputy sheriff or warden of the jail.

DO NOT CIRCULATE

In connection with this place we hear the name of Mounger (for whom Mounger's Creek was named) and Brewer who, so far as we know, was the first owner of the land. It is not certain when or where these gentlemen lived, but it is known to be prior to 1840, and both left fields long since abandoned, but known by their names. The land was sold for taxes and bought by Thomas Fletcher, who in turn sold the property to B.C. Rice, who came to the place on February 12, 1855. In 1861, this gentleman leased a turpentine landing to Thomas Galloway, a native of North Carolina, who operated a turpentine still on the banks of the river at the place now known as the Warehouse Landing. The work was done by negro slaves and of course, closed at the end of the war. One of these slaves, who died only a few years ago, said that it took a hundred days to grade the road down the hill. There are two stories extant as to the method of getting freight up the hill: There was a track from top to bottom on which a small car ran. One story is that this car, loaded with freight, was pulled up by one cable and windlass, while the other is that there were two cars, one of which going down with the resin drew the other up loaded with lighter freight.

From the hands of B.C. Rice the lands passed about 1871 into the hands of Isaac Forehand and then successively to Daniel Entrekin, Calvin Taylor, Enoch Sumrall, Alfred Browne, Judson Perry and H.E. Woodman. The latter sold his claim to William Brewton from Brewton, Alabama, who established a sawmill and gave his name to the place, somewhere about 1895. After a few years, the place and business came into the hands of George S. Leatherbury, Jr., who made an attempt to change its name to Klondike after the gold fields of Alaska. Not being quite so productive as those regions, the property was given up to the firm of Turner and Ashley and in some way passed into the hands of the Scranton State Bank. The business was leased to John D. Gray, under whose administration the mill burned. The business was carried forward by the firm of Flurry & McMillian, and operations went on until the failure of the Scranton State Bank in 1906. The mill burned again in a few months and the property was later bought by the L.N. Dantzler Lumber Company, who still own it.

As a business proposition it can hardly be said that the place was ever a distinct success to anyone. Down the magnificent log chute went thousands of the finest logs that the country, afforded, in the mill was sawn millions of feet of lumber and hundreds of men were given employment there, but few, if any, came out very successful financially. Apart from the hoodoo that seemed to hang over business, there were other things. Despite every fact pointing to the health of the place, it was unhealthy and few remained there long without feeling the effects of the dreaded "Brewton Fever."

It is a noticeable fact that while the population of the village was sometimes several hundred, there was a school in existence for only three years and these were mainly after the business had closed. There was no church until 1905 when one was organized and four persons were baptized in the river. A building was erected and dedicated in 1906 by the Rev. Jeff Lott, pastor of the Baptist church at Vestry. Of course, there were other churches and schools near, but not in the immediate vicinity.

Notwithstanding the number of good families who were always there, the morals of the place were sometimes very bad. It was located just on the edge of that great body of half-white, half-negro population, more disreputable than the members of either race. Again it was a place where a floating population found something to do and ship deserters found a place of refuge.

All the vices of such a place were prevalent there. But few people were ever intentionally hurt and none were killed. There were four persons drowned in the river, a negro slave belonging to Brewer, a boy named Artie Lemon years ago, and more recently a young man named Carter, for whose death two men were tried and convicted, and lastly a negro who drowned from a raft and the discovery of whose grave caused quite an excitement.

Today there is little left to show its former prosperity. Not a single inhabitant, a few dismantled houses out of the great number there marks the spot where the village stood. "Gone are its charm for all its charms are fled." Truly it is a deserted village as much so as Auburn of which Goldsmith wrote: "Of its future no one can say." It is still in many ways an ideal spot for a small town, provided those things were present which call towns into existence. Whether these will ever be it is impossible to predict.

Recently I purchased the one roll of Childers/Childress Revolutionary pension application records. I will read these records closely and report on each application, giving as much information as deems necessary to fully identify the soldier.

I know many of you have sent for an application you felt might be your ancestor only to find after receiving it that this particular soldier will not fit into your family puzzle.

The following is a list of each soldier listed on this roll. All applicants will be reviewed in this quarterly.

On the beginning of each of the rolls is an introduction to the information found in the pension applications. I wish there was a way to run this "introduction" but it is 13 pages long and would take valuable space - instead I am going to tell of some of the interesting points concerning these applications.

You have all seen the numbers and a letter before the number listed with each mans application - such as our 2nd soldier in this series:

Ga. CHILDERS/CHILDRES, DAVID S-39298 -- this man enlisted in Ga. The "S" indicated he was a "survivor" of the Revolution and made application for pension himself. All veterans of the revolution were called "survivors" thus the "S" before the number of his application.

If the number is preceded by the letter "W" - this indicated the application was made by the widow of the soldier. She must give information as to when and where they married, when the soldier died and if she has remained his widow or if she has remarried. If she remarried her present name is listed under her name as being the widow making the application. This soldier will be listed as such:

N.Y. BELL, Jacob W-17292
Elizabeth (under her name would follow her married name
DOE, Elizabeth

If the application number is preceded by the letter "R" -

this indicates the application was rejected and will give the reason for the rejection (if you can find it in the mess of papers in the folder) and the person who has applied for the pension - be it the soldier, his widow or children. When I say the mess of papers - it is that - none of the papers or placed in the folder in any kind of order at all - not by date, name or any reasoning. You will notice an affidavit given by this person, dated 1843 and another following with a date of 1818 and this is the order they were filmed. So watch the dates as I will give information as it appears in the files and in the same order (disorder?)

In November of 1800 a fire destroyed papers which were dated before that date - so if you feel sure your ancestor was a revolutionary soldier and received a pension - it could be his records were destroyed in this fire. (Also remember - unless your ancestor could PROVE his need for assistance from his country he did not receive or maybe did not even apply for the pension. HE HAD TO BE IN NEED TO RECEIVE A PENSION (Some of the soldiers really did tell a terrible woe of affairs in trying to get the pension - even as we do today when trying to get something was in the 4th and 5th Va. Reg. and was made a cook under General Washington and served as such under him for 18 months. I was then detached under Capt. ? in Col. MERRIWETHERS, Reg. served 3 years and honorably discharged in Va at Winchester (about 1 month after Cornwallace surrendered. During this trip he (Abraham CHILDERS) marched from Amherst to Bottoms Bridge then to Morbin Hill, there to 4 mile creek in ? of Va. but was never out of the state of VA except 1 trip to Guilford NC when under his captain in hearing of the guns. He was also marched from Bottom Bridge Va to Maryland then to the Battle of Brandywine, was in the Battle of Jamestown Va., Morbin Hill and Brandywine - wounded in left thigh at Brandywine. Was born Buckingham Va - has no record of his age. As to his character he refers to his neighbors - Thomas FRANCIS age 59, Joseph HAMMONS age 63 and Andr? WILSON age 56, residents of Perry Co Ky.

CHILDERS, ABRAHAM

17 Oct 1832 Perry Co Ky. Abraham CHILDERS age 82 on 15 Nov. last says:

There being no clergyman in his neighborhood the witnesses of oaths of Francis, Wilson and Hammons are to be considered.

After the surrender of Cornwallace he was marched as a guard of the prisoners to the barracks in Albermarle where the British was left and proceeded to Winchester with the balance of the prisoners.

He had 3 brothers - Mosby, Henry and William in the service at Morbin Hill. Several regular soldiers, he thinks _____ were hung for desertion (I know all this sounds mixed up but this is the way some of these papers read-M.R.)

6 Oct 1855 Owsly Co Ky - affidavit of William CHILDERS in the case of Abraham CHILDERS of Perry Co Ky says : he is the son of Abraham CHILDERS - my father died in Letcher Co Ky on 6 May 1849, that my father employed Elisha SMITH and ALEXANDER PATRICK to attend his business as power of attorney in collection of his pension. Abraham CHILDERS was also addicted to drink, was not capable most of the time to attend to business, being too drunk and the family failed to follow up on his pension. I moved to Indiana in 1837. I am now in my 68th year and am a member of the Reformed Church and have been for years. Signed William CHILDRESS

6 Mar 1854 - Owsly Co Ky - affidavit of William CHILDERS in case of Abraham CHILDERS of Perry Co Ky says his father died Apr 1849 and left the following legal heirs or children (including himself) to wit: William, Francis, Polly, Dicy, Abraham Junr, Elizabeth, Goldsby and Seley. That his mother Elizabeth CHILDERS died many years before his father and on 17 Feb 1833 and further saith not.

6 Nov 1856 - affidavit of Stephen ARTHUR of Powell Co Ky. says he was b 8 Mar 1760, knows Abraham CHILDERS - we were raised in same neighborhood - I lived in Bedford Co Va and CHILDERS was raised in the adjoining county of Amherst, but in the same neighborhood and close together and about the conclusion of the war CHILDERS moved to Buckingham Co. Childers entered the war some time before I did. Acquaintances who left at the same time as Childers was William CHILDERS, Moseby

CHILDERS, Moses Fleetwood, John FLEETWOOD, Joseph THURMAN and Thomas ARTER.
The CHILDRESSES lived on the river TIE, it emptied into the James river and in this country it would be called a creek. I heard Moseby CHILDERS was shot down by the side of his brother Abraham and that William CHILDERS was taken prisoner and never heard from again. I am no kind (kin) to the CHILDERS in any way.

23 Jan 1857 - Proctor, Owsley Co Ky. a Jno. CHILDERS mentioned in letter of attorney. Wm. FULKERSON who was trying to get Abrahams pension allowed..

18 Apr 1855 - Owsley Co Ky. Affidavit of Patrick MASTERSON, lived in River Piney or Tie says Abraham Childers died Perry Co Ky some 6 years ago.

We have made a careful search of the Abstract Book for Augusta, Mississippi, Cash Entry Certificates, 1820 thru 1833, but did not find any reference to a William Childress. Also, we examined a Mississippi Tract Book, Volume 11, page 61, and it shows a John Ward for sec 12, T. 2 S., R. 8 W., but there is no reference to a William Childress. In addition, Mississippi Private Land Claim Docket #427 is for John Ward for sec 12, T. 2 S., R. 8 W.; and sec 30, T. 2 S., R. 7 W.; 639.66 acres; but we did not find any reference to William Childress in this docket. Of possible interest, there are name index cards for a William Childress, who acquired land in Alabama, 1821-31, 1873; William Childress, land in Florida, 1837; and William Childress, William D. Childress, and William H. Childress, who acquired land in Louisiana, 1851-1901. Enclosed are electrostatic copies of these cards. It is important to know that the Federal Government only has records of the sale of land from the Federal public domain to private individuals or companies. Later land transactions between private persons should be recorded in the county in which the land is located. We suggest that you write to or visit the Recorder of Deeds, George County, Mississippi, for later sales of this tract of land (sec 12, T. 2 S., R. 8 W.). George County was organized in 1811 according to a booklet we have on The Counties of the United States by E. Kay Kirkham, Salt Lake City, Utah, 1961. Finally, we shall be glad to make any of the above cited records and any other pertinent records available to you or your representative in our research room at the Washington National Records Center. We have a very few people handling a very large number of requests for searches of the records of the General Land Office in this branch and therefore we cannot do extensive research for private individuals or companies. P.S. The American State Papers: Land Grants and Claims, 1789-1837 (8 volumes), contains the following references to persons surnamed Childress: 1) Bartholomew, Volume 3, page 446; 2) James, Volume 5, page 22; 3) John, Volume 3, page 513; 4) M. P., Volume 8, page 968; and 5) P., Volume 7, page 222; and Volume 8, page 967. Probably some larger library in your vicinity has a set of these volumes. These also include information about unpatented private land claims and that information is not included among the Private Land Claim Dockets in the GLO records in this branch.
